Bellevue-Oberlin Game May Be Protested; Lorain, Elyria Win.

The Little Big Seven basketball season was started with a great deal of snap and pep when six of the seven teams met Friday night. Bellevue, Lorain and Elyria were the victors although Oberlin may protest the Bellevue, Oberlin game as a result of a jangle between the teams. Bellevue won the game 36 to 35 in an over time period. Lorain trounced Norwalk, as was expected, 26 to 15, while Elyria pulled a big surprise by beating Fremont 22 to 13.

The official score at the end of the Bellevue-Oberlin game gave Oberlin the game 32 to 31, but as the crowd was leaving a Bellevue fan who was keeping his own score protested, saying that the game had ended 31 to 31. All three of the official scorers showed different scores so the referee called for an over-time period. Near the end of the period the score stood 36 to 35 and Oberlin was allowed two free throws in a foul. Both were missed, but Oberlin claims that the Bellevue fans interfered with the tossing and may protest the game.
